

Root provenance is permanent metadata

Never guess a modular square root later; classification uses the root that generated each circuit base